

Alberta Golf Hall of Fame - Player

Kareen Qually-Nelson

Inducted: 2010

Club Affiliation: Olds Central Highlands Golf Club

At her induction, Kareen Qually-Nelson became the youngest Alberta Golf Hall of Fame member at just 35 years of age. Her superlative junior and amateur playing record places her among the province's elite female golfers of all time. Kareen won the 1998 Canadian Women's Amateur while also finishing as the runner-up in 1994 and bronze medalist in 1999. She was also the Alberta Ladies Amateur Champion in 1995 and 1998; Alberta Junior Ladies Champion in 1993 as well as the Canadian Junior Ladies Silver Medalist in 1992 and 1993.

Kareen was internationally recognized being named to the Canadian Ladies Golf Association World Amateur team in 1994 and 1998 as well as the 1995 and 1999 CLGA Commonwealth teams. She also represented the province in interprovincial team play downs at the amateur level from 1994-96 and 1998-99 while also playing on the Alberta Junior Ladies Team from 1992-93.

Kareen has been a terrific ambassador for Alberta golf having played on 6 continents as an amateur and professional golfer. In 1998 she was recognized with the prestigious SCORE GOLF MAGAZINE award as the Outstanding Canadian Female Amateur Golfer.

Competitive Record

*Denotes winning team

International Teams

Canadian Ladies World Amateur Golf Team Member: 1994, 1998

Canadian Ladies Commonwealth Team Member: 1994, 1998

National

Canadian Women's Amateur Champion 1998

Canadian Women's Amateur Championship Runner-up 1994

Canadian Women's Amateur Championship Bronze Medalist 1999

Canadian Junior Ladies Championship Runner-up: 1992, 1993

Canadian Junior Ladies 15 and Under Champion 1990

Provincial

Alberta Women's Amateur Champion: 1995, 1998

Alberta Ladies Junior Champion: 1993

Alberta Junior Ladies Masters Champion: 1991

Alberta High School Champion: 1991

Alberta Ladies Marg Hembling 15 and Under Champion: 1989

Provincial Teams

Alberta Women's Amateur Interprovincial Team Member: 1994*, 1995, 1996, 1998, 1999

Alberta Ladies Junior Interprovincial Team Member: 1992*, 1993*

Other Items of Note:

After a distinguished amateur career Kareen played professionally for 7 years. She can boast of competing on 6 continents as an amateur and professional golfer.