

Alberta Golf Hall of Fame - Player

Keith Alexander

Inducted: 2005

Club Affiliation: Calgary Golf and Country Club

Keith Alexander is one of the few accomplished Canadian golfers who take their love of the sport from the course to the boardroom with the same zeal and commitment.

The 1960 Canadian Amateur Champion and six-time Alberta Amateur Champion went on to win the 1992 Senior Golf Championship of Canada before turning professional and focusing his attention on the Senior PGA Tour in 1993.

As an administrator, Keith was an instrumental part of the Alberta Golf Association from 1968 through 1982, serving as President in 1977.

Competitive Record

*Denotes winning team

International

World Amateur Golf Team Member: 1960, 1964, 1966, 1970, 1972, 1976

America's Cup Team Matches: 1960, 1961, 1963, 1965*, 1967 1971*

New Zealand Centennial Trophy Team Matches 1963 Commonwealth Trophy
Team

National

Canadian Amateur Champion: 1960

Canadian Senior Champion: 1992

Canadian Amateur Medallist in 1965, 1970, 1976 and tied in 1977

Provincial

Alberta Amateur Champion: 1957, 1964, 1966, 1977, 1978, 1981

Alberta Open Champion: 1967, 1980

Provincial Teams

Alberta Willingdon Cup Team Member: 26 times

Other Items of Note

An officer of the Alberta Golf Association from 1968 to 1982 and President in 1977