WELCOME TO THE 2026 COMPETITIVE SEASON!

Alberta Golf Championships showcase the strength of our provincial golf community which is built on support, sportsmanship, and a shared passion excellence. Players, volunteers, event staff and our host clubs work closely together, driving Alberta Golf's commitment to deliver the best player experience possible. With a continued focus on pace of play, and providing new competitive opportunities, we're excited for an inspiring 2026 season. We look forward to seeing you at an Alberta Golf provincial championship this summer!

2026 CHAMPIONSHIP FOCUSES

The below areas will once again be major focuses for our team this season as we continue to elevate our championships.

- Experiences
- Pace of Play
- Value

WHAT'S HAPPENING

FOR 2026

Practice Round Blocks

Practice round times will be available at select championships on the day prior to the first round. Players will still need to book these rounds directly through the host club and at their own expense. Practice round blocks will be available at:

- Men's Amateur Championship
- Women's Amateur Championship
- Men's Mid-Amateur Championship
- Women's Senior Championship
- Alberta Open Championship
- U13 & U15 Championship
- All Abilities Championship
- U17 Championship
- Men's Super Senior Championship

Please check the Event Information tab on each championship registration page for exact times.

WHAT'S HAPPENING FOR 2026

Championship Banquets

To increase camaraderie and elevate the overall experience of our events, banquets will be held at select championships. Banquet times and further information can be found in the Event Information tabs. Event specific invites will also be sent to registered players. If players are unable to attend a banquet, food and beverage vouchers will be provided. Banquets will be available at the following championships:

- Men's Amateur Championship
- Alberta Open Championship
- All Abilities Championship
- Men's Super Senior Championship

WHAT'S HAPPENING FOR 2026
